IPSWICH

THE 1985 IPSWICH HIGH SCHOOL YEARBOOK

IS DEDICATED

WITH LOVE AND APPRECIATION

TO

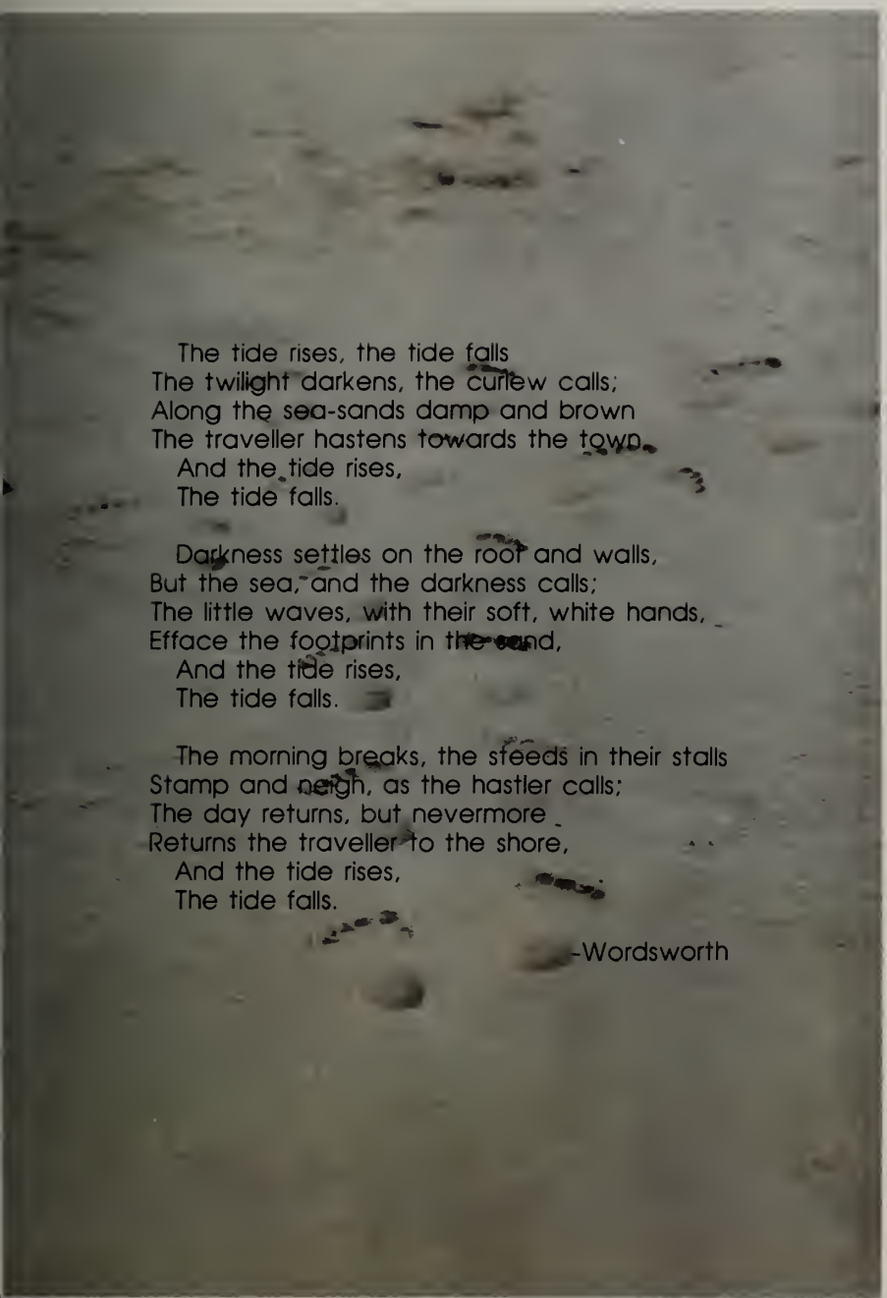

JOSEPH R. ROGERS

UPON HIS RETIREMENT AFTER 35 YEARS

OF DEVOTED SERVICE TO

THE IPSWICH PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

1985 P15.00

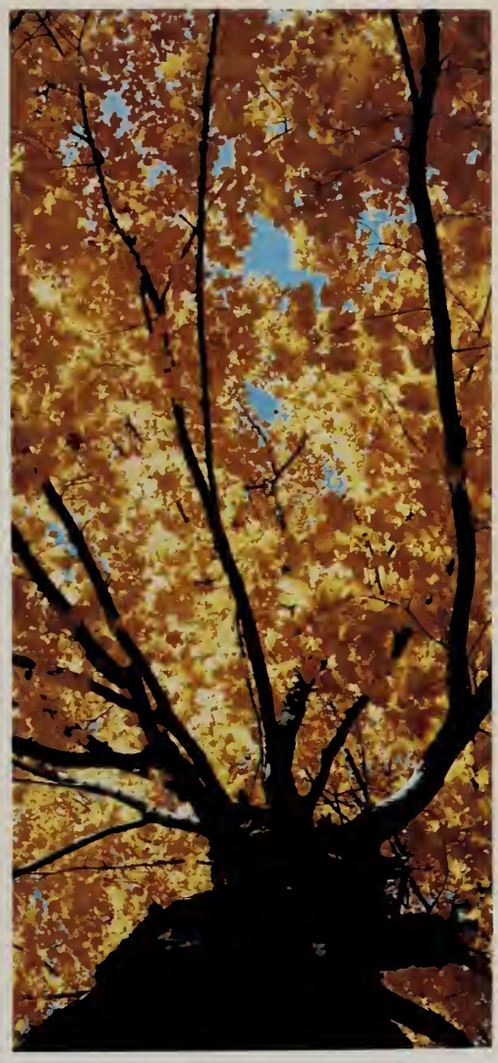

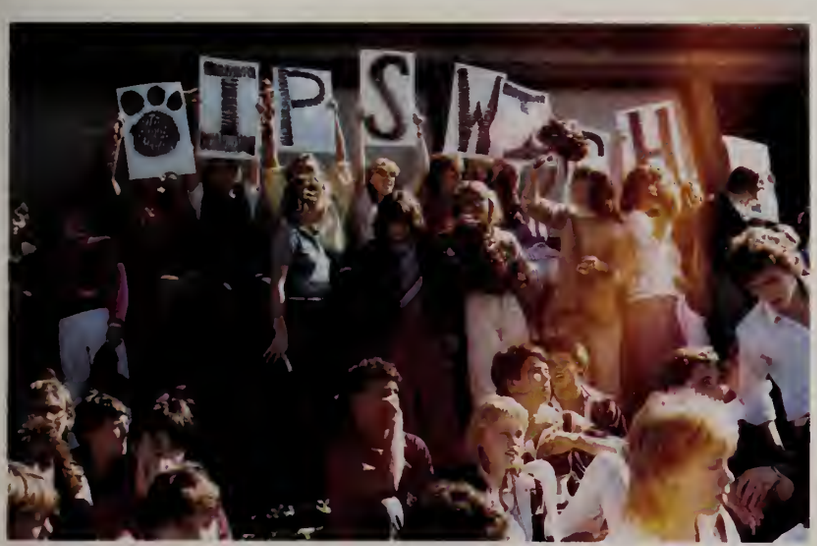

The tide rises, the tide falls
The twilight darkens, the curlew calls;
Along the sea-sands damp and brown
The traveller hastens towards the town,
And the tide rises,
The tide falls.

Darkness settles on the roof and walls,
But the sea, and the darkness calls;
The little waves, with their soft, white hands,
Efface the footprints in the sand,
And the tide rises,
The tide falls.

The morning breaks, the steeds in their stalls
Stamp and neigh, as the hastler calls;
The day returns, but nevermore
Returns the traveller to the shore,
And the tide rises,
The tide falls.

P.D.A! WHOOPS . . .

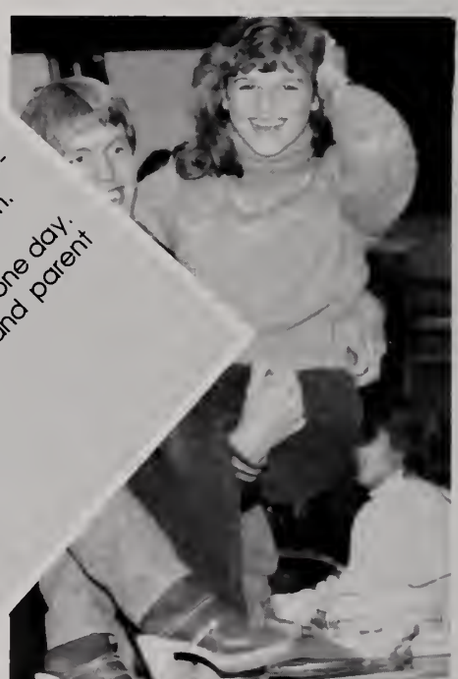

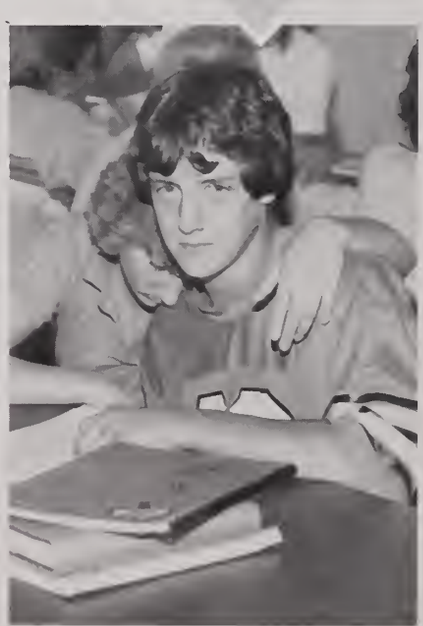

Because of the excessive, overt, obvious display of poor taste among many of our students before, during and after hours, plus the ineffectiveness of reasoning with some students regarding the overt, embarrassing situation of "making out" the following is to be added to code of discipline:

Anyone, or couple, displaying such overt actions as may be deemed inappropriate and unacceptable display of poor taste, i.e., kissing, fondling, embracing, will be given a written warning via a parental notice of such.

The second incident will result in suspension for one day.
The third incident will result in suspension and parent conference.
